

Die Jovis 22. Septem. 1642.

WOT

TH E humble Petition of the Major, Aldermen and other the Inhabitants of Coleraine, in the Kingdome of Ireland, setting forth the lamentable Estate and Condition of that Towne, was this day read in the House of Commons. And it is thereupon Ordered that for the Reliefe of the said Inhabitants, that the Collection which the three next Generall Fast dayes shall produce, within the City of London and Suburbs, shall be payed unto such person or persons for the use and benefit of the said Towne, as the House of Commons shall thinke fit to nominate. And it is further Ordered, that it be recommended to the Lord Major of London to advance this Act of so much Charity by the best meanes he can.

HEN. ELSINGE, Cler. Parl. D. Com.

I Thinke fit that this Order be forthwith Printed, and read in every Parish Church, throughout London and Suburbs, for the better advancement of so charitable and pious a worke. And I desire that every Minister will promote the same by his powerfull and earnest Exhortations to the Inhabitants and other his Auditors, freely and cherefully to contribute and give their benevolence towards the Reliefe and Succour of the aforesaid distressed poore Protestants. And that the money to be Collected by the Church-wardens, may be Registered by the oversight of the Minister, and detained untill further Order from the said House of Commons.

ISAAC PENINGTON, Major.
